The prevalent perspective holds that human consciousness is itself a historical product, and that it is an important part of the historian's work to piece together the mentality and assumptions of actors in the past. Pompa Significantly, contemporary historians such as Robert Darnton have turned to the tools of ethnography to permit this sort of discovery. Another important strand of thinking within analytic philosophy has focused attention on historical ontology. Hacking Little The topic of historical ontology is important, both for philosophers and for practicing historians. In this way the burden of ritual which pervaded daily life was lightened by wit and sanity.
