It is assumed that a person's rank either stays the same or increases, never decreasing. So she never went out, night or day. Instead, it shows that rituals assert their significance in the post-colonial and globalizing world by successfully negotiating structure and contingency, identity and hybridity, script and embodiment. The desire to discredit the UFO mystery was born out of fear that an invading country might deliberately trigger sightings and clog communication channels. And the author implies a corrective to this sour lament at the very end.
